Serial Number

Entries in Columns 40 through 43 may be numeric or alpha to indicate the serial number of the document and may be assigned at the discretion of the document originator.

The serial number will not be duplicated on the same day.

When alpha characters are used as a part of the serial number, they will only be used in Column 40

The use of alpha characters can serve to provide for block assignment by service/agency designated activities.

The following alphabetic codes have been reserved for use in Card Column 40:
